ACTIVITY REPORT (Academic Year 2019-20)

1. Title of Activity: Children's day

2. Date & venue: 14th November 2019, BND-I Classroom

3. Description of activity:

Children's Day is celebrated on 14th November in India to commemorate the birth anniversary of Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru. He was born on 14 November 1889. Jawaharlal Nehru had immense love, care, and affection for children and so, they call him Chacha Nehru.

Rich tributes were paid to first Prime Minister of Independent India Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, on the occasion of Birth Anniversary by "Umang Geetai College of Women's Education", Koradi Road, Panjra, Nagpur, which is celebrated as Children's day on 14th November 2019, today.

A daylong event commenced by garlanding the Photo of Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru at college by Director Mrs. Vashali Fuley and Principal Dr. Atul Tekade and other Faculty members.

Later addressing the crowd at the programme held in the class room at college Mrs. Vashali Fuley highlighted that the Children's Day is celebrated to raise awareness among people towards the rights, care, and education of children. Children are the future of the country, the key of success and development which leads the country in a new technological way. No doubt they are the god gifts to their parents, innocent, admirable and loved by everyone and also by Chacha Nehru.

Principal Dr. Atul Tekade said, Children's Day is also known as Bal Diwas. Chacha Nehru was mainly fond of children and roses. According to Jawaharlal Nehru, children should be carefully and lovingly nurtured, as they are the future of the nation and the citizens of tomorrow. They are the strength of the country and the foundation of society.

Pandit Nehru worked so much for the education, progress, well being and welfare of the children as well as youngsters of India. He had established various educational institutions such as Indian Institutes of Technology, All India Institute of Medical Sciences and Indian Institutes of Management. Free primary education, free meals including milk were provided to the school children in order to prevent children from malnutrition in India.

Speeches were also given by students of Bachelor of Nutrition and Dietetics department Miss. Sayali Durge , Miss. Janhavi Yadav and Miss. Bharti Bhaisare.

6. Description of activity:

The "International Yoga Day-2021" was celebrated at "Umang Geetai College of Women's Education", Koradi Road, Panjara, Nagpur from 21st June to 22nd June 2021 through virtual mode of Zoom app meeting id 9850851838 and Live on YouTube channel. The theme for this year's yoga day was "Be with Yoga, Be at Home' ". On this occasion, Two Day Online National Yoga Workshop was organized by NSS Unit of the college. The Workshop was jointly organized in association with the "Heal Through Happiness Organization" (Online and offline services provider for Yoga). The Principal Dr. Atul B. Tekade addressed the students and staff about the advantages of Yoga in day-to-day life. On the first day of Yoga workshop, Prof.

Janhavi Nandanwar welcomed and introduced the Resource Person- Trainer Dr. Payal Luharia, Naturopath, Yoga Therapist & Dietitian, A dedicated Yoga practitioner with over four Years of experience with her assistant Trainer Ms. Bhavana Luharia. The trainers had given us their valuable guidance to the students by showing the different asanas. They also performed standing and sitting asanas. One could understand by watching their performance that they have been practicing yoga for the last few years. The first day of the workshop was specially designed for the Yoga beginners. Our yoga trainers showed us some simple and beginner asanas.

On the second day of the workshop, 22nd June 2021, Founder of “Heal Through Happiness Organization” (Online and offline services provider for Yoga) was the resource person. She was also welcomed and introduced by Prof. Janhavi Nandanwar. In her session, she had performed and delivered some beautiful yoga exercises such as Yoga to tackle stress and anxiety, Yoga Nidra for body awareness, Nada yoga (musical yoga) for throat, Breathing exercises for lungs health and calming mind and Gratitude meditation.

Various asanas were performed followed by Omkar chanting. Warm-up exercises, sitting and standing asanas were performed. The trainers gave us a practical workshop about the benefits of yoga.

It's a very interesting Day for all of us. The experience we got was really amazing and important.

7. Outcomes of the workshop-

- i) The exercises are good and useful to the students and faculties.
- ii) All the students and faculties were excited and energetic.
- iii) Some of our teachers and students had shown us Yoga by following the instruction given by the trainer.
- iv) Proud feeling to Women's and girl's.
- v) Confidence is enhanced

8. Conclusion-

Yoga education can supplement school, college and university education. It can prepare the students physically and mentally for the integration of their physical, mental and spiritual facilities so that the students can become healthier and more integrated members of the society and of the nation.

For the workshop director Mrs. Vaishali Fuley, Principal Dr. Atul B. Tekade, NSS programme officer Mr. Nilesh Meshram, Prof. Manisha Kulsange, Prof. Janhavi Nandanwer, Prof. Gaurav Gajbe, Prof. Rashmi Uikey, Prof. Roshani Dahare, Pawan Karnele were present in the workshop. All the students and faculties participated eagerly. About 60 students & faculties were present and actively participated with enthusiasm & said that yoga is for everyone its above faith.
